"TELOS"
$15,191
plus porch

Weekend escape place? The Telos offers 480 square feet with a 160 square foot sleeping loft. Just 20'x16', it's easy to erect.

"Baskahegan"

The Baskahegan is well-built, comfortable and has all the basics. It is 24' x 18' and has a kitchen, a separate bedroom downstairs, plus two sleeping lofts and an open porch. Mattresses on the loft floor? The kids will love it! In all, 720 feet. want to check out the floor plan? See our website: www.wardcedarloghomes.com

$20,701

"MOLUNKUS"
$36,090
and up

Originally a 3-car gable garage, several clients re-designed the Molunkus as a year-round cabin. The photo above shows part of the interior. Below is a Molunkus underway. The cost depends on the windows and interior.

"Musquash"

The Musquash is 20'x32' and our biggest camp building, at 855 square feet. Some people add skylights. Others raise the roof. The cedar porch extends living space to the out-of doors.

$23,047 (Plus porch$3,648)

The Musquash below has extra gable logs to increase headroom in the loft, plus more windows and a porch railing.

Modified Musquash with extra materials.

PREMIUM LOG HOMES
And yes, we have lots of full-size cedar log homes. The house below is a favorite. It's called the Coopersburg. Tell us what you are looking for and let's talk.
